Round 5 Mojo Homes Illawarra Cup

What strange times we are experiencing at the moment with the ongoing challenges from the current unprecedented wet weather conditions.

We are undertaking all measures to ensure that the Mojo Home Illawarra Cup competition continues. This is demonstrated via the various geographical locations of our games, from locally at the Collegians Sports Complex in Figtree, to the famous Henson Park, Points Bet Stadium in Cronulla and up to Bowral in the Southern Highlands.

This week's 'Match Of The Round' in the Mojo Homes Illawarra Cup is the match up between the undefeated Western Suburbs against the Cronulla Caringbah Sharks. The Sharks have been unlucky thus far and will be at their best in front of their supporters at Henson Park.

De La Salle's home game against Thirroul has been changed to be the curtain raiser to the NRL game at Points Bet stadium, this is a great example of the opportunities that we are able to provide to our players as they will get to experience competing on NRL venues in front of a big crowd.

Once again, our friends in the Southern Highlands are hosting the clash between Corrimal and Helensburgh. This is Corrimal's second weekend in a row travelling to the area as they look to pick up their first win of the year, the match taking place at Bowral's picturesque venue Loseby Park.

The other match sees the improving Dapto travelling to Collegians fortress at Figtree who will looking to bounce back after last week's match in the mud.

If you can't get to the games, you can watch all the action live on Bar TV from 1pm Saturday.

Unfortunately, due to the bad we had to make the hard decision to cancel all other Illawarra Rugby League matches, we all pray for some good weather to allow these competitions to return to the paddock soon.

Enjoy the footy!

With Cronulla Caringbah Sharks affiliation with Glebe Dirty Reds in the Ron Massey Cup, we see Cronulla Caringbah Sharks hosting Western Suburbs at Henson Park.
